Jake Peralta is the best detective in his precinct, and is used to being able to do whatever he wants. Having no real or caring boss, he is not used to following the rules. However, when Captain Raymond Holt takes over he shows everyone that he means business. Having much to prove himself, he takes it as his obligation to make this the best precinct in the Brooklyn area. But Jake Peralta won't change that easily. With the help of his coworkers and friends, will Peralta be able to stop Holt? Or, is this type of captain exactly what he needed?

What drew you to this tv show?

The setting of this show drew me to it, because it is set in a police district in New York, more specifically Brooklyn. I thought that this was a good fit for the show, and it was very entertaining to see how it affected the characters.

Did it remind you of something that you've previously watched or read?

This reminded me of another series called The Office. Both shows are set in a working atmosphere, with one main character and his/her coworkers. Both Brooklyn 99 and The Office are very funny and great shows.

To whom would you recommend this movie?

I would recommend this media to anyone who wants a good laugh. This show is a comedy, but for people who like mystery, it wouldn't be bad either. There is also some romance that builds up during the first few seasons.

Overall, did you like it and would you recommend it to others?

I would recommend it to others because it is very funny. The dialogue throughout all seasons is hysterical, but not only is it funny, it also teaches good lessons. These can include the strengths of friendship and trust.

Anything else that you would like to add to this review? What made you choose it? Did you like the cover? Was it recommended to you? Did you find it at the library?

This series was recommended to me by my sister. The first episode is very good, and makes the watcher hook on to it with ease. Very good series!
